

Green Lake Community Council
Wednesday, July 10, 2013
Meeting Summary

1. Paul Kostek called the meeting to order at 7:00 pm.
2. Andrew Scott from SeaFair was not able to attend the meeting. Paul reminded everyone that the Milk Carton Derby was going to be held at Green Lake on Saturday the 13th of July.
3. City Council candidates Brian Carver and Albert Shen addressed the Council and answered questions. Brian is an Amazon employee and a PCO in Wallingford. He is running against Richard Conlin. Albert is an engineer and runs a consulting firm. He is running against Mike O'Brien.
4. Jonathan Dong reviewed the Aurora Corridor Improvement Project and took comments from the audience. The new project will create what is called the Bus Access and Transit (BAT) lane. This is being done to support the new Metro Rapid Ride E line.
5. Michael Cornell was not able to attend the meeting and attendees were directed to his website – michaelcornell.com to get Michael's latest real estate report
6. Mary Muller was introduced as Chair of the Land Use Committee and attendees encouraged to contact Mary to volunteer or with any issues.
7. Bruce Harrell of the City Council (Public Safety, Civil Rights and Technology Committee). Bruce reviewed his interest areas and answered questions from the attendees and also discussed his campaign for mayor.
8. City Councilman Richard Conlin provided a review of the current zoning plans for the City. A definition of a universal lot is in development by DPD and the result of the controversial "skinny houses". A public hearing will be held on the new language. The council will also be revisiting the interim moratorium on the building of skinny houses as the final DPD report will not be complete and acted on before the expiration.

9. Garet Munger reported on the cleanup of milfoil in the Lake and asked for volunteers to assist with this effort. Park Department personnel will remove the milfoil from the shore. Friends of Green Lake will be holding a picnic on the 23rd near the Bathhouse. The snackbar by the Bathhouse will be reopening on July 23rd.
10. The NW District Council is taking the summer off and will meet again in September.
11. The SPD North Precinct will be holding it's annual picnic on Saturday July 13th.
12. Keith was not able to attend the meeting, Paul reported that the Summer Student season is underway and all performances are listed on the website: seattlepublictheater.org.
13. Next meeting is September 11th.

Meeting adjourned at 9:00 p.m.
